

FCC Commissioners
The Federal Communications Commission RE: Docket 04-435
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear FCC Commissioners ,

Please, please, please, I am begging you, DO NOT relax the restrictions on the use of cell phones on airplanes in flight.

As a frequent flier, I can imagine no worse torture than the idea of a whole cabin full of people making cold calls, discussing office politics, making plans, and generally passing the time by scrolling down their contact list and "catching up" with their friends. I can't fathom the amount of tension this would cause in airplane cabins. Cell phones are already an infestation in movie theaters and restaurants; please, please, please, do not sully the friendly skies with their incessant ringtones and the never-ending babble of strangers.

Please leave the current rules in effect.

Sincerely,

Justin Ware
